Plan "A" was to hop on the 465 after a swim (BUT no swim - "you're too late mate!") and a visit to Dorking Sunday Market, then drop off at Rushetts Lane....

Sod it! I get out of subway in time to see bus fly past the stop a good 5 mins ahead of schedule (Bastards! - Teq).

Plan "B": get the train to Epsom the 10:02? ...

No trains... only replacement buses, there is no 10:02 but the 10:14 will SURELY be in Epsom to pick up the hourly E9 which goes within "12 mins walk of the start" - say 36 mins at my rate of knots.

Epsom.... "E9 left 3 mins ago!"

Plan "C": Walk up that road by the Cricketers towards the church ...

Hang on why am I hobbling worse than usual - ? - this could be Lethal!

Ans: - swim shorts have slipped down inside shorts - must find stuff as RA:

Abba was called in for his exceeding sartorial elegance - very generously legged cricket whites!

Master Bates decided to give Atalanta a birthday present about 8 months late or 5 months early which consisted, apparently, of the converse of an "Upper Topper Flopper Stopper" : in short a "Boob Enhancer" (what planet? - Teq) All this accompanied by "The Usual Song" (no Hans der! - Teq)

There were doubtless other saints and sinners who escaped my notice.

At the Jolly Coopers we were told to SIT and we would be Served!

Trouble was there was not much seating or space so some of us opted to brave the elements in the garden which proved to be most agreeable.

Practically the whole table opted for the very quaffable "Dark Warrior" a Stout brewed on the premises. All pints seemed to be one price £4.70 (seems par for the course these days! - Teq)

Trail took-in part of Ashtead somewhere to adjust my dress - behind this brick wall - Ignore curious glances from a couple viewing the property!

Wow! I find £2, or did that roll out of my shorts?

Aha - an E10 is coming in 10 mins!

I alight at Christchurch and find a wonderful broad path running (the path not me!) through the trees parallel to the road.

I am overtaken by, the usually belated, SBJ & Blue Suit who unable to park at the Stew Ponds had gone all the way back to park at the Jolly Coopers!

The path was straight as a die but no flour? - would have thought that this path was perfect for FRB who I am convinced was a Roman Centurion in a previous existence!

I seem to be walking for ages, so ask this approaching, very attractive, French lady in stylish athletic gear; "Is it far to "les Etangs?"...

Incomprehension.... she was Italian!

"No 'e lontano' - about 10 to 20 minutes" she smiled.

Later I find the first of FRB's flour and a seat & an Urinoir behind it - well trees anyway! Then; going off left, a newly refurbished pathway to the "Stew Ponds dam"! Made it ; I am on the trail!

At the Circle CL was purveyiing saiami and other antipasti / tapas from a silver salver .

Le Pro stood in for GM and called in:

The visitors (drooling over the first 2!) : Annie from NZ, who hashed with SH3 many years ago, and a young lady from Spain(?).

Paul Tenner (sic! .. Tanner! Teq) aka Hash Spy; hashing since 1975 starting with the so called "Original Surrey Hash" (Weybridge!).

(not QUITE! - Teq).
 The "GM" handed over to....
 Arfur Pint—"OK!" who did her

Common, apparently there was a part in the middle where a number of Hashers lost it but most found a short cut back.

The whole day had Glorious sunshine and from what I saw; wonderful countryside quite unknown to me:

Well chosen day.

Well chosen venue.

Once again we salute you FRB Thank you

You seriously want a homily?

If we Really Really. want a virtually pollution free planet the real way forward is Solar +Hydrogen energy!

There has never been a better time to develop this AND the grossly neglected Tidal Energy Options; Discuss - BUT don't send any postcards!

Charity Corner

Just to let you know:

Attendees at the recent Dinner Dance and other Members made Donations to the tune of £505 for SH3's two Charities...

A very generous sum, much appreciated by Sister Anna and Uncle Gerry whose Charities are:

"Clean Water for Uganda"

and

"Cataracts are Curable, the Gambia Project"

respectively.

Thank you all!

Directions

BYO Picnic, rugs, flags, etc. Pimms & fizz available. Drink responsibly!

The tools to get to the Open Air Car Park are all above. If it is busy, it may be better to approach from the south (Sunningdale/Virginia Water). From the peanut roundabout at Woodside there are two roads to Windsor.

Take the second, the A332, sp town centre & M4, unless you would rather go to Legoland. The entrance to the car park is on the right after 2.3 miles. You must enter at the north end. Once in the car park drive a further 800 yards almost to the southern end.

If approaching via Runnymede (M25 jn13) and Old Windsor amid a sea of brightly coloured Lycra, cross The Long Walk and follow signs to Ascot (A332) and the car park will be on the left after 0.5 mile.

There should be plenty of space for setting down rugs, chairs etc. near to or on Queen Anne's Ride.
