The Hares; Hornblower, Strumpet were "augmented" with Oscar (now "Golden Boy"?) and Poop Eye – checking chicken

Wkers; Birthing Blanket, Do You? Nickerless, Dormouse, Terminator, Mrs Robinson, Olive Oil, Sister Anna, Too Posh, Uncle Gerry, Auntie Carol, Tosser, Clever Trevor (is this an oxymoron? - Wally), Herr Flick, Veggie Queen who missed a check – these Barnes "people" are not really up to it!

The FRB was being his normal laconic self and refused to talk to Silent Night as it was daytime.

We headed through forests and then out into open farm land where the horses in this heat should have had Blazing Saddles and been ridden by Gene Wilder but they looked surprisingly cool.

We came across an L which I supposed was for losers as there was no other trail shown and I assumed this meant a shorter route – was I later to count the cost!

Then a white apparition appeared, after a gold star for turning up early a previous week; Atalanta was back to her old tricks and late as usual.

Young Guns; Daisy – moonlighter with NH4 (who named her Canape?), Barnaby, Hugo, Oscar

Visitors; Sticky Balls, I Need One. The report (at last–Teq)

With no sign of a Roman Villa it was easy to drive past the car park but soon the troops arrived for the monster hash in monster temperatures!

Hash Flash introduced our visitors from the CRAP(Crawley Running and Pub) hash namely Sticky Balls and I'll Give It One.

They claim that they had run 8k instead of 9 missing out the last k (SCBs) in Crawley early this morning as a prelude to SH3.

How she catches up I will never know.

Also Dr Death and Knees Up were now in full flight – the latter complaining that he had checked a trail but when I went down it the flour was only 50 feet from the check – call that checking.

As heat exhaustion was taking its toll we were really pleased to see Strumpet at the water check – for once I was glad it wasn't Teq and booze.

Then disaster struck as Oscar keeled over (I thought Teq wasn't here today? - Wally) shouting "It Ain't Half Hot Mum".

I knew he was suffering because he was with Lizzie who is his aunt!!! and he looked down down and out.

However, having seen a bike rack in their car, I know that they had come back from participating in the European Games Triathlons.

They were of course embarrassed as no medals!!!

Besides Hornblower and Strumpet we also had some Hash House Horrors who had helped lay the trail.

We were then off off with Stevie Blunder and Runner Bean upstaged by the CRAP contingent and anxious to prove their superiority.

Also No 2 daughter Lizzie and Oscar set off to run the trail a second time!!!!

Soon the FRBs were far ahead and I had to rescue One in the Eye

At this point Kelinchi and Pepper appeared. The latter seemed keen to help but the former being even later than Atalanta was anxious to catch the FRBs and she faded away immediately like the Cheshire Cat's smile.

Fortunately there was a world wide super hare there who had predicted this situation and had been weighed down down with water and a first aid kit (Lizzie will refer).

He also persuaded Roz who lives in The Black House to give him (no Oscar - chance would be a fine thing) a cold shower inside her house and some fizzy pop and he was good to go again.

Sometimes Samaritans like him are not as good as Lonely but hey ho at least the lad was saved!

Meanwhile I started to fall back and was going as slow as MB and Cheating.

MB then had a second wind (he had baked beans for breakfast) and forged ahead.

We soon approached the smart lodges in Farley Heath and there was a bird in a bikini.

I said I would prefer a cold tub today rather than a hot one but she was also tubby and so I declined.

I then consulted my GPS system (come pass this way if you can read an OS map) and forced myself to go onward (a medical establishment for the completely insane) to tell Poop-eye and Claire about said Cheating and they went to his rescue.

So at long last the ON IN appeared and we had the pleasure of Hash Flash renaming our young guns Back Flip, Golden Boy and Sonic the Hedgehog!

Also I Need One had her request granted and a first grand daughter called Summer was born that morning.

The hares were suitable thanked for their run and they kindly supplied donuts.

Tom (Claire's husband) arrived and Auntie Lizzie was so happy to give the boys back!!!!

P.S. I was pleased to see that Poop Eye has stopped using his Wanchor marks as these are a political statement like Black Lives Matter, LGBT+ or Proud to be a sodomite but these groups do not affect 90% of the population (stats from ONS).

Too Posh wasn't happy that I give blood but I explained that this was my 75th donation and if I survive another 8 years I will reach a 100 before I die.^N

Uncle Gerry quipped that he could help me give blood quicker by giving me a punch on the nose – I declined

For use before, during, or after the trail for urgent or important contact.

Our hares made excellent and original use of this very well-known area, and scrupulously avoided taking us through the village of Farley Green. Unfortunately the merciless sun ensured that all those beautiful open fields, the grass now a dusty golden grey, became ovens to bake us as we progressed in procession, dreaming of shade and greenery. Oh, the first part, taking us north and downhill, was largely in shade, until the last half-mile or so; it was the return, south and uphill, which became a struggle. Fewer checks than we have become accustomed to, and those usually easy to solve.

Not always; after the sip-stop (pure water, but highly welcome today) we did struggle to find flour, and the unlucky, setting a good trail on the last day of the heat wave; I suspect that in the future our hash will have to cope with prolonged periods of extreme heat. Not that the contestants for the post of PM have shown the slightest interest in our climate.

Prime Ministers merit mnemonics. Despair, it's Blair! Brown, the clown! Cameron would hammer on. May, dismay! What a horror is Boris! Mistrust Liz Truss! Actually, the last named promises to be much more interesting than most, as an ideologue; her predecessors were largely pragmatic, doing what made sense at the time, but she intends to act on a mad belief that tax cuts solve all economic problems, taking more literally than was intended the text "To him that hath shall be given, while from very first check had an ingenious solution. But mostly to those who had their bearings the checks were fairly predictable.

So we became strung out. Naturally Atalanta (once she had caught up) was way out there, with Ms Bean and Stevie B; there was also a fast newcomer in black, whose handle I heard, or misheard, as Sticky Boy. I was with 'IsKnees and Chastity Belt, the GM and One In The Eye, Le Pro and DTT. And were we not aggrieved when back at the bucket to find it empty! Rule nr 42 ("the oldest rule in the book") for our ruleless hash must be "Checking Chickens need not finish last and should never have the keys to the beer" Of whom am I writing? Of Popeye, whose attention to his duties was dedicated in the extreme.

I should pay tribute to the exact and detailed knowledge of the area revealed by Hash Flash, who even warned us of the potential wrath of house-holders should we cut across their terrain. And his estimate of the time of our return was accurate to within a minute or two. Our numbers were swelled today by young families, mostly new to our activities, though of course this is not true of Velcro and her lively grand-daughter. Since the hares had provided a very sensible short cut, I imagine most of these visitors enjoyed their experience, though one lad did do the main trail. I did not enquire as to his verdict. Really Strumpet and Hornblower were him that hath not shall be taken even that little that he hath".She must be one of the last believers in "trickle-down", oblivious to the reality that private wealth disappears into tax havens.

Like many Americans, she disregards Luke's words: God hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away. Prosperity is seen as proof of divine favour, which is indeed Old Testament thinking, until you reach the book of Job.

More 'Orses... SH3 & Their OPPOS:

The GREY FOX R I P must have heard my comments regarding himself and GILBERT RIP because he rose to the challenge and came good 1/5 on Friday over a mile at Windsor at 11/4 whilst GILBERT could not improve on his 3/4 Yarmouth performance when he finished down the field in a similar handicap at Nottingham 4th 7 ?

AT Kempton in the 8. 02 TEQUILAMOCKINGBIRD (by New approach out of TEQUILA SUNRISE) threatened to win and did just that at odds of 10/3 .

2yr SPARKLING RED 11/10 fav won a 5f at Thirsk RUM COCKTAIL TEES SPIRIT & HANS BURGER SOLO fought out a blistering 5f sprint in blistering heat at Doncaster

TEES SPIRIT prevailed - the other two were out of sight Perhaps HANS was, still feeling the effects of his birthday celebrations the week before!

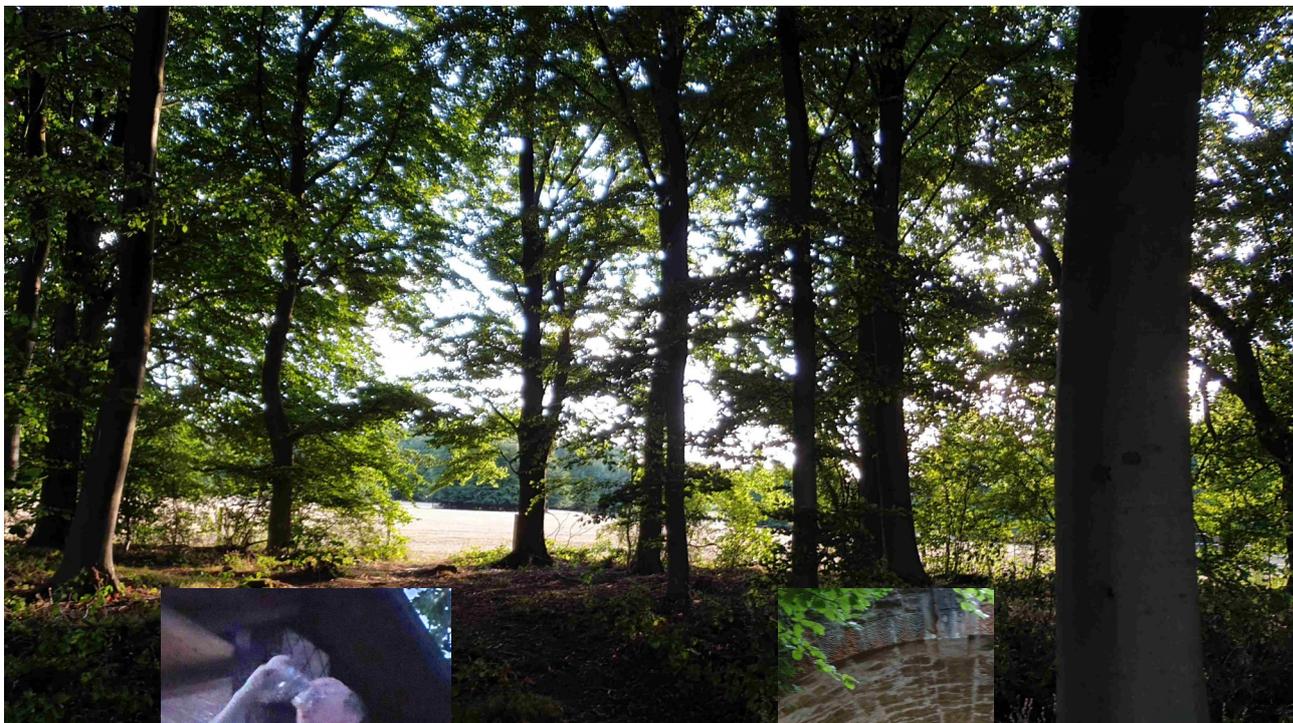

SISTINE. MADONNA threatened to. justify favouritism over 7f at Cork but in the event could only manage a 2nd /7

On Sunday 5/4 fav TIPPY TOES aka TWINKLE (IRE) showed 'em a clean pair of heels winning a sprint at Chelmsford Cambridge H3 struck again when DORS TOYBOY (is he still alive?- bless him) came good in a sprint at Chelmsford. @ 7/2

On the Glorious Twelfth in a 5f sprint at Nottingham AT-TIES EDGE. came 2/8 @ 16/1 her best result this year . 7yr old ATALANTA QUEEN (GB) hasn't been out for some time - praps she ll turn out at Southwell / Windsor when the jumping season really. gets under way Who knows?

TEQ N JERK

The Pack: Atalanta, Blue Suit & SBJ, Fish'n'Chips, Kelinchi, Legolas, Master Bates, RHUM

It was a small but eager pack and the oppressive heat of the day was relenting. It relented a bit too much later! RHUM, at first, missed the car park by driving to the arrow position around the corner.

The trail basically orbited Polsden Lacey taking in a few hills and included one really devious check. The last leg took us on a narrow path through a field of tall maize. Fish'n'Chips didn't fancy it and took a slight short cut back to the car park. I clocked just less than 5 km.

Back at the OnOn, Teq was busy at the BBQ. Having cancelled (for lack of numbers) Fitz's Caribbean catering, he'd made his own Jerk marinade. Since he couldn't decide which variety of Jerk to use from a Google search, he used the ingredients of all of them! The result was delicious BBQ'd Jerk Chicken and Sea Bass fillets coupled with saffron rice and peas.

As soon as the sun went down it became almost chilly and most of us donned our fleeces.

All in all, it was a great evening.
