Now THAT car park has "History"! AND it is nothing to do with it's current reputation. Many moons ago our "leader" and "founder" the right Hon. James Raper, scourge of the city and long term enforced ex-pat, decided to lay his trail from there. I arrived about 10:45 and in ran a somewhat "vexed". Jim; "Whoops, I've just assaulted a farmer! I'm going to make myself scarce! If the police turn up - plead ignorance!" he panted. Apparently he was laying the trail down the middle of the "runway" when a tractor pulled alongside and the farmer told him to stop what he was doing and "Get orf my land!". Our Jim (about 5' 6" tall), was of sterner stuff, after all he had a hash trail to finish, and ignored him.. Well what would you do?

 The tractor zoomed off ahead, screeched to a halt, the burley farmer got out and tried to bar our Jim's way!
 "I only pushed him in the chest" he said, "and he fell over!"
 Jim "legged it", I'm not sure if he laid any more trail, and arrived back at the carpark, told us the story and zoomed off!
 I remember ALL that but not the full detail ... did we follow the trail? Yes ... I think we did...Did the trail just run out on the runway? Yes, but no "dead" farmer, did we get back to the carpark? Yes we did! Did the fuzz turn up? Yes! Did we deny all knowledge ... what do you think?!

 AND that's not the end of its history ... As you MAY know, Weybridge Hash evolved into something like now after "bumping" into Surrey Hash in October 1976 at Coldharbour, renaming itself "Weybridge HHH" (previously Surrey Hash!) in deference to SH3 who had started a year earlier AND had Jim ; who was RICH! No contest! We should have called ourselves "Addlestone H3" as that is where it all stemmed from, but Weybridge sounds "posher!"
 Some time in 1977 while we, WH3, were still running Sundays (carefully at different places to Surrey H3!) we decided to combine and lay one for Surrey AND I and a fellow WH3 hasher laid it from

THAT carpark ... spooky! My FIRST SH3 trail!!
 Dr Death's trail was like a trip down "Memory Runway"

JOINT HASH

The Weybridge HHH, Tony Shaw Secretary, have invited the SH3 to join them this Sunday. It will be remembered that last year the Surrey Hash were proceeding on their leisurely way when suddenly the woods were filled with strange runners, also crying "on on". It transpired that there was a second Surrey Hash who by an incredible coincidence had chosen the exact same location for their run. They have since changed their name to the Weybridge HHH, and they joined us for a joint run on 6th February at Abinger.

Now the WHHH are returning the compliment and inviting us to join them at the location above. Tony Shaw says it will be a shorter run than some of the recent SH3 runs. This will give Harriettes a break - and strong runners can CHECK vigorously instead of leaning against a tree waiting for someone else to find the trail! And there is a nice lake for strong swimmers near the finish.

Dr Death is an experienced hare with a good understanding of our thinking; his first question on our return to the car park was "Too much blacktop for you?" Obviously we have all run many times from there, and we all prefer something new; well, this hare has the skills required. Our route back was an excellent example: most hares use the semaphore tower, Dr Death found a good way of avoiding this and pleasing us with attractive terrain.

The same cannot be said of the start. From the third check we could have reached the airfield at once (if I may be permitted to crow, I had solved the first two and was exploring just such an option, backed up by the admirable Simple, when he heard the cry of On Back!)

You will have noticed an absentee in that list – no, not of the dogs, the front runners. Where was Le Pro? Others not yet back when I went home were Olive Oyl and Sister Anna; I believe Popeye went out looking for them.

My wife speaks to me sternly about the relaxed attitude we have in SH3 to runners not back when the Circle is under way. I can claim sheepishly that in all our years nothing has ever gone seriously wrong, that we do look out for children, but she can retort that we do not even list those taking part, and rely on memory to account for anyone not back.

Your coda this week is brief. The new Chancellor of the Exchequer is my MP, and I can vouch for his courtesy, competence, and commitment to his constituents. Spelthorne is (I believe) the only borough

No, our hare took us all the way down a long road, and then set a check on the A3 to send us retracing our steps on this same road till at last we reached the airfield. By this time I was last, having been exploring the chances we were to cross the A3, led by Wurzle, who had the same idea. We found the front runners all over the place, with Atalanta going round in circles; Wurzle got it right backed up by Mother Brown. Straight across this airfield, a good idea – it is characterless terrain for hashing. And then into thistles, nettles and brambles, uncomfortable for those of us with bare legs, but still part of hashing tradition.

in Surrey to have voted Leave, and Mr Kwarteng is a fervent Leaver. Indeed he holds strong views on many economic and social issues, very much those of our new PM. Most of our governments react to events with pragmatism; now we have one with an ideology which has never yet worked in practice, the trickle-down theory of wealth distribution. Time will tell!

FRB

Alas, then came more and more roads. All right, new roads, where we have seldom been running, but roads! We don't want roads! We could admire the local, elegant, use of alternating red and black bricks, as at nearby Pytford Mill the previous Sunday, but hashes should not be dedicated to architectural appreciation. Well, at last we got onto green fields, and even some rather good woods, only to find ourselves back on more bloody roads. Plenty of front-running talent: Atalanta of course, 'IsKnees and his Countess (the wife of an Earle!), Petal, Popeye, Wurzle, Simple, and eventually the late-arriving Kelinchi. This meant 4 pooches: Raffles, Paddy – who prefers to run ahead of Dormouse – Pepper, and a newcomer as a puppy called Rhu, kept strictly on a lead.

Spot the dog

Can almost NOT hear the A3!

Le Pro apparently got confused by these signs for the facilities ... I WONDER which one he finally chose!?

I know which one I would choose! - Teq

GENERAL LEE aka LORD BRYAN

DONTLOOKNOWTLIKE BRIAN BRIAN THE SNAIL etc due to run in 9 f hcp at Hq on Wed decided to. give it a rest after he had been out at the beginning of the month

I don t want to risk overstretching myself at my age ' he said

POP DANCER went to Sandown for a 5f sprint at Sandown but could not improve on his 2nd at Brighton in August though he was 2nd/8 here at 16 /1 whilst

POP MASTER went up to Ayr for the prestigious Gold Cup on Fri for a 6f dash and finished 24/26 he had previously finished 4th of 9 as 2 /1 fav at Ascot

POPTRONIC went to Newmarket on the Friday where he could not emulate his two wins in June but did better than his last at York

DOUBLE. CHERRY went to Haydock for a long distance 14f flat race and came 1st/10 "It was a piece of CAKE" she said

On Saturday 2yr old CHERRY also. went to Haydock and came a creditable 3rd at 9 to 2

PERCY S WORD won his Hurdle at Haydock heavily odds on at 2 to 1 whilst at Goodwood PERCY'S LAD finished down the field a far cry from his 20 /1 win at Chelmsford a month before

5yr SHEILA(IRE) came 2nd from 14 after a 3 month break then disappointed at 4/1 fav to come 12 /12 at Listowel
5yr GLOW WORM(IRE) aka THE WHIPMASTER has not been seen out since July - and the human version ?

ROSE ol ITHACA might just as well stayed there for all the good she did at Wolverhampton However she couldn't have done better in her previous race at Thirsk where she won at 6 to 1 .

Fraid no Champers, for CHAMPAGNE SARAH aka BALLISTA etc (IRE} running overseas came 5 out of 6 (100 /1)

SHE S GOT BOTTLE has won twice at Beverley as fav will she do so well at Newcastle?

Mathematics

What Makes 100%?

What does it mean to give MORE than 100%? What about those people who say they are giving more than 100%? How about achieving 103%? This formula might help.

If: A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z is represented as:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26.

Then:

H-A-R-D-W-O-R-K $8+1+18+4+23+15+18+11 = 98\%$

And

K-N-O-W-L-E-D-G-E $11+14+15+23+12+5+4+7+5 = 96\%$

But, A-T-T-I-T-U-D-E

$1+20+20+9+20+21+4+5 = 100\%$

And,

B-U-L-L-S-H-I-T $2+21+12+12+19+8+9+20 = 103\%$

AND,

A-S-S-K-I-S-S-I-N-G

$1+19+19+11+9+19+19+9+14+7 = 118\%$

So, while Hard work and Knowledge will get you close, and Attitude will get you there, it's the Bullshit and Ass Kissing that will put you over the top.
